

THE FOURTH ANNUAL
YUKI TEIKAI HAIKU CONTEST
JUNE 6TH, 1981

Home of Helen Carter King
670 Covington Road, Los Altos, California

Hostess: Helen Carter King
Registration: Susanne Stone, Beth Martin Haas

PROGRAM

Master of Ceremonies: Jerald T. Ball

12:30 - 1:30 p.m.

GINKO and Lunch (No Host)

Helen Carter King Garden

1:30 - 2:30 p.m.

President's Welcome

Patricia Nachmiller

Introduction of Officers

Patricia Nachmiller

Opening Address and Contest Chairman's Report

Jerald T. Ball

The Society: A Year in Review

David Wright

Award Presentations:

Reading of Honorable Mention Haiku

David Wright

(Listed in Reverse Order)

Kathleen Hale

Edwin Falkowski

Bohumila Falkowski

Roberta Stewart

Beth Martin Haas

Raymond Roseliep

Ian Wolfe

Helen Dalton

Barbara McCoy

1981 YUKI TEIKEI Haiku Contest
Award Winning Haiku
Final Selections by Shugyo Takaha

(Haiku listed in increasing order of importance---reading at the Awards Ceremony to be given in this order).

Sakuma Award
Elizabeth Searles Lamb

leaving the cabin
I put the old calendar
into my backpack

First Calif. Bank Award
Thomas Arima

huddled together
three puppies in box are one:
soundless chilly night

Sumitomo Bank Award
Jerald T. Ball

A chilly night's walk:
I can see hollow spaces
as houselights go out.

Don State Sanwa Bank Award
Ruby Spriggs

Stopping in mid-stride,
the faintest hint of purple...
crocus beginning!

YUKI TEIKEI Haiku Award-3rd
Renee Biciche

Veil of glowing stars:
Some strays lost in lake below
held by chilly night

YUKI TEIKEI Haiku Award-2nd
Ossie E. Tranbarger

At Sunday service
lizard on the window sill --
I count his push-ups.

YUKI TEIKEI Haiku Award-1st
Louise Somers Winder

Feeling the comfort
my old, arthritic knees and the basking lizard

Shugyo Takaha Award-Grand Prize
Pearl S. Schuck

In the highway ditch
a barely noticed crocus
trying to be tall

